

6 September 2019

Final report submitted on the Review of the Water Sharing Plan for the Barwon-Darling Unregulated and Alluvial Water Sources 2012

The Natural Resources Commission (the Commission) has submitted today to the Minister for Water and the Minister for Environment its final report on the review of the Water Sharing Plan for the Barwon-Darling Unregulated and Alluvial Water Sources 2012.

The Commission would like to thank the 1,231 respondents who provided submissions throughout this review. The Commission has considered these submissions in finalising the review.

In accordance with s 43 A (5) of the Water Management Act 2000, the report is to be made public after the decision of the Minister or on the expiration of 6 months after the report is received by the Minister.

For further information, please visit <https://www.nrc.nsw.gov.au/2018-2019-wsp-reviews>.

Media: Bryce Wilde 02 9228 4844 / 0407 107 310