

To serve the people of NSW by providing independent evidence-based advice to Government to secure the best environmental, social and economic outcomes in natural resource management

Public value

Healthy resilient landscapes, productive primary industries and vibrant communities

Operational Efficiency

Employer of choice, healthy and safe team, financial sustainability, strong governance

Outcomes

Trusted high quality advisor

Sound government decision making and improved service delivery

Improved community trust

Ethical, effective and efficient management

Strategic Priorities

Independent advice on complex issues

Improved evidence base for decisions on forest management

Oversight of water planning and implementation

Audit and other evaluations

Corporate services and management excellence

Organisational Capability

Engaged and effective leadership

Results focused, high performing team

Inclusive and innovative culture

Performance enabling technology and systems

Healthy and safe working environments

Values

Trust, Accountability, Integrity, Service