

From: Mathew Churchill
Sent: Thursday, 22 October 2009 12:21 PM
To: Avtar Singh
Subject: submission - red gum assessment

Dear Commissioners,

I along with thousands of other Australians urge you to protect the last remaining red gum forests in a National Park. With the effects of drought, lack of environmental flows in the Murray and continued unsustainable logging practices, these red gum forests need protection now so they can be enjoyed by future generations in an ever-growing ecotourism market.

Thank you,